RACELAND AGAIN.

Easily Defeats . Terrifler in the Second Event at Linden Park.

HUGH PENNY, ALL THE WAY.

Wins the First Race, Nahma Gets the Third and Melanie the Fourth.

RACE TRACK, LINDEN PARK, Oct. 17.-The weather conditions at Linden rark to-day were very pleasant. The cold, raw air of yesterday had disap-neared and in its place dry, crisp air and warm sunshine appeared.

The card was attractive, and it promised excellent sport.

The attendance was not as large as that of yesterday, but there were, nevertheless, about 4,000 present. The track was in excellent shape The opening event was a dash of five furlonge. Bookies and talent alike conceded that the race had only two in it-Hugh Penny and Will Elliott. This pair were backed to the exclusion of the others. Many had faith in and Jimmy Shields's tilly Mary B. and their play kept her at a short came in on Hugh Penny and he closed slight favorite.

The size of the field made a long delay at the post, but the flag finally fell, with Hugh Penny having all the best of it. Rugh Penny wen all the way. Will end was coming fast, not soon enough though to get the lead. He beat Uncle

Jess for the place, however, The second race was interesting. Race-land was an odds-on favorite, and the exciting part of it was that his backers were kept guessing as to whether he would even get up to Terrifler, who was going along at a great clip. Racciand did catch Terrifler, however, and won handily. Picknicker finished as the books picked him.

and the lot were so poor that the tal-ent termed them a lot of "dogs." Nah-ina was the favorite. She got the worst of the start, but overhauled her horses in the stretch and won easily. Penn drew a fine finish with Pirate Chief, the second choice. Ironsides was a poor third.

NORTHERN PACIFIC PLANS.

The Ives-Belmont Committee Ask Judicial Aid.

Pending an Agreement,

Counsel representing the Committee of stockholders of Northern Pacific, who claim to control proxies aggregating $30,000,000 of the Company's stock, appeared before Judge Lacombe in the United States Circuit Court this afternoon with an application for the appointment of a special inspector or mustre, who shall have charge of matters at the annual election of the Company, which takes place next Thursiay.

They base their application upon a suspicion that the election in question is not to be conducted in a manner that its entirely above hoard, and it is feared that the present Board of Directors will take advantage of some of the by-laws to freeze out a large proportion $\psi$ the stockholders. In other words, they are afraid of a snap game being played upon thom.

The committee, which appears in these proceedings as the petitioner, is known as the Belimont Committee, and is composed of August Helmont, Brayton level bound Mackay, J. Horace Harding and Winthrop Smith, Mr. Belmont and Mr. Ives were in court but afternoon.

The present directors were not represented in court, but Mr. Jarctsky, of Sailivan & Cromwell, counsel for the Northern Pacific receivers, was on hand to oppuse the application. He said that the directors would meet to morrow and the directors would meet to morrow and resented in court, but Mr. Jarctsky, of Sallivan & Cromwell, counsed for the Northern Pacific receivers, was on hand to opnose the application. He said that the directors would meet to-morrow and pass any resolutions necessary to a tilsfy the Court and the petitioness that the election would be a perfectly fair and honest one, and as the directors were not represented to-hay he suggested that argument on the question be adjourned till to-morrow afternoon.

Meantime, bethought the stockholders committee and the directors could get together and come to an amicable agreement, which would render any action by the Court unnecessary.

John Calwalader, counsel for the Committee, said if the directors would agree to the terms proposed by the stockholders, which the Committee had insisted upon which and not been agreed to by the directors and those representing them and that the actions of the Board Indeed to create the impression that they intended to give the stockholders opposed to them a fair show, the said that the latter controlled fully 3,000 proxies, and claimed to represent a mojority of the stockholders opposed to them a fair show, the said that the latter controlled fully 3,000 proxies, and claimed to represent a mojority of the stockholders opposed to them a fair show, the staid that the latter controlled fully 3,000 proxies, and claimed to represent go over until to-morrow at 4 o'clock and if a satisfactory arrangement had not been made by the opposing parties before that time he would be ready to take action.
